

Fig. 1. Two pictures separated 0.05 s during the breakage of an 86 mm long liquid column in Texas-12 (1985), and the flight hardware been used on ground in a Plateau Tank configuration (with a liquid column formed in the test cell at the bottom). A millimetric background raster was used.

References \(see Publications\).